

MISSION & VISION

The Leadership Forum team is proud to announce our inaugural issue of Forman Management Review magazine which will be hot off the presses in February 2015. Forman Management Review is a student led publication of the School of Management at Forman Christian College (A Chartered University).

FMR is a whirlwind tour around the world of business which will present you with an all-encompassing package to satiate your cravings for the knowledge of ongoing local and global business trends in areas such as Leadership, Human Resource, Operations, Finance, Accounting, Strategy, Marketing, and Entrepreneurship. FMR is intended to be a well-researched, well-rounded contemporary business magazine for use by students and professionals alike. Ideas, opinions and insights from students, faculty as well as national/international business executives and personalities will be promulgated through this magazine. It's a reader's goldmine to finding answers on how to lead, manage, grow, and joust your way to the top.

Forman Management Review – Booming Buzz of Business